Helping at Home Like the Prophet ﷺ: A Lesson for Kids

1 Fill in the missing word

1. Helping at home is a way of showing love to our family.
2. Even small hands can do useful jobs: setting the table, tidying toys, watering plants.
3. We help with a smile, without being asked again and again.

2 Let's talk: what to listen for

Every child's answer will be a little different. Praise any answer in their own words that shows these ideas:

- When Aisha (may Allah be pleased with her) was asked what the Prophet ﷺ did at home, she said he used to help and serve his family, and when it was time for prayer he went to pray (Sahih al-Bukhari 676).
- Helping at home is a way of showing love to our family.
- Even small hands can do useful jobs: setting the table, tidying toys, watering plants.
- We help with a smile, without being asked again and again.

3 I practised it this week

No right or wrong answers. Colour the stars together at bedtime and praise the effort, not just the result.

4 Draw it!

Any picture is a good answer. Ask your child to tell you about it, and write their words under the drawing.

Try this at home

Give your child one small job at the next meal, such as putting out spoons or folding napkins. Afterwards, tell them that the Prophet ﷺ also helped his family at home.
