1. A _____ is something people trust us to do.
2. Islam teaches us to keep _____ and be honest.
3. Say _____ when you promise something for the future.

2 Let's talk

1. What promise did someone make in the video?

2. How do you feel when someone keeps a promise to you?

3. What can you do if you cannot keep a promise?

3 I practised it this week

Colour a star each day you remember to do it.

4 Draw it!

Draw what you learned today.

Keeping a Promise in Islam: Lesson for Muslim Kids

1 Fill in the missing word

1. A promise is something people trust us to do.
2. Islam teaches us to keep promises and be honest.
3. Say InshaAllah when you promise something for the future.

2 Let's talk: what to listen for

Every child's answer will be a little different. Praise any answer in their own words that shows these ideas:

- A promise is something people trust us to do.
- Islam teaches us to keep promises and be honest.
- Say InshaAllah when you promise something for the future.
- If you cannot keep it, say so honestly and say sorry.

3 I practised it this week

No right or wrong answers. Colour the stars together at bedtime and praise the effort, not just the result.

4 Draw it!

Any picture is a good answer. Ask your child to tell you about it, and write their words under the drawing.

Try this at home

Choose one small promise you can keep today, such as tidying a toy together. Talk about telling someone honestly if you need help or cannot do what you promised. Watch at your own pace and pause whenever you want to talk. This companion activity is an idea to try together, rather than a transcript of the video.
