2 Let's talk: what to listen for

Every child's answer will be a little different. Praise any answer in their own words that shows these ideas:

- Allah asks us to help one another in good things, and not to help each other in doing wrong (meaning of Quran 5:2).
- Playing together means sharing ideas, taking turns and listening.
- When we disagree, we can talk calmly and find a fair plan.
- A team that helps each other can do more than one person alone.

3 I practised it this week

No right or wrong answers. Colour the stars together at bedtime and praise the effort, not just the result.

4 Draw it!

Any picture is a good answer. Ask your child to tell you about it, and write their words under the drawing.

Try this at home

Give two children one set of blocks and a simple goal, like a bridge for a toy car. Each child can only place a block when the other says "your turn". Afterwards, ask what helped them finish.
